Hey everyone,

Anton here.

Thank you for subscribing to my new blog. Currently it's 20 people total, but I think more people have read some of my posts.

I've only started writing this one 20 days ago but already have 8 posts:

- <https://antiantihuman.com/on-hiding>
- <https://antiantihuman.com/toxic-sweetness>
- <https://antiantihuman.com/mismatch>
- <https://antiantihuman.com/programmable-intimacy>
- <https://antiantihuman.com/californication>
- <https://antiantihuman.com/blowing-bubbles>
- <https://antiantihuman.com/latex-salesman>
- <https://antiantihuman.com/communication>

I still have few topics sitting in drafts. But I also want to slow down writing a bit (maybe one post per week).

I didn't figure out how to find a positive spin on issues I discuss and when I only think about problems I get annoyed and frustrated. So I will soon try to find a balance and also write about things I consider good.

Eg here I already have evergreen list of people who I like <https://antiantihuman.com/inspirations>

I also decided to create subreddit - <https://www.reddit.com/r/antiantihuman/>. Not sure if this is a good idea, but if you have some public comments/ideas - you can try leaving them there.

I think I was able to write so many things in a short period of time mostly because of comments from people - my friends and also <https://www.recuse.com/> community - that was encouraging, so thank you a lot for reading and commenting.

Have a nice weekend,

Anton
